

Southam men who lost their lives in WWI

This list combines the names listed on the town war memorial, others from the Congregational Church memorial and others who appear on neither. This list together with details of rank, number, unit, date of death and place of grave/memorial has been compiled by Alan Griffin and appears in his book 'Lest We Forget; The Southam Men in the Great War'.

Abbott, William	Devenport, Arthur John
Adams, Arthur	Duckett, Arthur John
Amos, William Thomas	Duckett, John
Askew, Harry Thomas	Fennell, Alfred Edwin
Baldwin, Frederick J.	Fennell, Joseph Henry
Baldwin, Arthur Edward	Flowers, Percy Preston
Baldwin, Charles Isaac	Flowers, Harry
Baldwin, Harry	Garratt, William George
Bicknell, Harry	Gillmore, David Henry
Bleloch, William Alison	Glenn, Henry
Brain, William Harry	Gould, William
Bull, George Riley	Griffin, Ralph
Bull, John Edward	Hancocks, William Frederick
Burnell, William Charles	Hancox, Frank Louis
Carter, Lenard Bertie	Harrison, Allen
Checkley, John	Hart-Davies, Ivan Beauclerk
Collier, William Charles	Hartley, Frederick George
Constable, Frederick William	Hincks, Edward Warner
Court, Frederick William	Hollis, Ernest Joseph
Davenport, Ernest Edward	Hughes, Sidney
Davidson, William Charles C.	King, John Henry Lake
Devenport, Alfred William	Lattey, Alexander Davidson

Lee, Bernard George
Masters, Thomas
Morby, Henry Thomas
Morgan, Albert
Owen, Ernest Clinch
Parkinson, Horace James Ankers
Pearson, Hubert Reeve
Pittom, William Richard
Pratt, Ernest Alfred
Pratt, Ernest Arthur
Randall, Herbert Henry
Rathbone, Arthur James
Rockingham, Thomas
Seckington, William Harold
Shearsby, Edmund Thomas
Shorthouse, George Henry
Smith, William Alfred
Turner, Arthur Charles
Turner, Edward Walter
Wellings, Edwin
Worrall, Thomas